PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE
Notes
Tuesday, February 20, 2018
213 Main Building

Present: Sharon Armstrong, Scott Fernandez, Cliff Johnson, Laurie Lamont, Jane Lewandoski

January In-Service Survey Results

Survey results indicate that attendees enjoyed the venue, food, keynote speaker, and breakout sessions.

March 22 Workshop Confirmation

- Location: The Raven Café. Laurie will confirm reservation with the Raven.
- Topic: Electronics in the Classroom
- Moderator: Scott Fernandez
- Food: Marilind will ask Lisbeth Tollander to order the same food as at the Fall 2017 workshop: guacamole and chips, hummus and bread, coffee and water.
- Certificates: Sharon will order certificates from Lisbeth who will give them to Scott to distribute at the workshop.
- Invitation and marketing: Cliff will send out a “save the date” to all faculty on March 1 and formal invitation after spring break.

2018-2019 Committee Chair

Item tabled until March meeting.

2018-2019 PD Planning

- Potential theme: “Master Educators and the Art of Teaching” based on the Great Courses The Art of Teaching: Best Practices from a Master Educator by Patrick N. Allitt. Members discussed potentially tying it in with incorporating the new General Education Competencies into courses and programs. Each workshop would play a bit from The Art of Teaching, followed by discussion among participants with subject “experts” from all four Gen. Ed. Competencies.
- Tentative dates
  - Friday, September 28, 10:00 am – Noon
  - Friday, November 2, 10:00 am – Noon
  - Thursday, March 21, 3:00 – 4:30 pm
- January 2019 In-Service Sharon will ask Julie Armstrong about the budget for next year and will contact Terrell Strayhorn from Ohio State University as a potential keynote speaker.

Membership

Kathy Ruby has withdrawn from the committee. Marie St. James is interested in joining next year.

Next meeting: March 27, 2018.

Adjournment at 4:00 pm

Jane Lewandoski